The Secrets of The Thousand Isles

*When man was forced from Paradise and told
That ne'er again the gates would stand ajar
But guarded by the Angel's flaming sword
He should not view it even from afar;
Touched with compassion at the sentence passed,
God turned again to His creation task
And made of us another Fairyland.*

*A thousand forms of granite pink and grey
God cast and trimmed with nature's fairest green,
Then broke the mold and hurled it far away
And poured St. Lawrence waters in between.
A thousand different shapes God chiseled out
To echo back the song of man at play,
Each rocky isle a masterpiece devout
Of Him who spun the world upon its way.*

*God builded us away from Eden's site
And left us here for centuries to wait,
Tucked in by azure sky or starry night,
To be discovered on some distant date.
That His decree of endless toil for man
Might not be too severe for Adam's guiles,
That there be yearly rest-Vacationland-
When God closed Paradise He made these Thousand Isles --*
